

HEARTBEAT DESIGNERS
OPEN SESAME

The Lyrics

EVEN BEFORE WE START

No crime to be here by your side.
Why is it wrong just to go on?
No god in this world wants division.

Even before we start
Can you feel my heart?
Before you touch my skin
Let romance begin!

Safe in my arm. Fragile like China.
Close to you, hear and feel your breath.
No religion can divide us.

Let's try another way.
No god in this world wants division.

BALL IN YOUR COURT

This one goes out to all the gutterhearts.
Like an arrow straight to all the good souls.
It's your decision, take a deep breath
Tell me what you feel...

So make up your mind!
Hurry up, don't hesitate!
Time's running short.
The ball is in your court.
It's your turn.
Don't linger for too long!
Time's running short.
The ball is in your court.

Starting from scratch and straight to your minds,
I'm calling all nations to reunite.
It's your decision, take a deep breath
Tell me what you feel...

CELEBRITY

Hey you. What's up? What are you doing right now?
Is it true? They say you're the coolest boy in town.
Seriously, I heard it from a friend of mine you're a star.

Celebrity – keep that in mind
Celebrity ain't for eternity

Surprise! Surprise! Here we go again.
No, no privacy... Your life in the spotlight.
The curtain will fall, lights go down. You'll hear them roar.

Time to relax. And just be honest right now.
How long will it last? Does fame ever last?
They'll switch on the lights, but suddenly you'll be alone on stage.

BLOOD SUGAR

It's not fainting. It ain't sad.
To be pleased it's not bad.
Blood sugar! Blood sugar!
A little gift to fulfil your dream.
Just a need and you will get.
Blood sugar! Blood sugar!

Feeling empty, hungry for life
Vacuum of emotions. Raise blood sugar fast!

My energy!
Blood sugar!
Why don't you have the sweetest sweets?
You have to control
Blood sugar!
Uuuh... Be good to yourself!
Blood sugar!

Without power. Without a chance.
Fill up your storage for the last dance.
Blood sugar! Blood sugar!

Feeling lonely. Empty in mind.
A pressing need now. Raise blood sugar fast!

Go, go.... high....high!

Feeling empty, hungry for life
Urgent need! Raise blood sugar fast!

LET THE MUSIC PLAY

At the end of the day,
The end of an era,
Closing a chapter in the book of life.
Say goodbye today,
Don't turn around anymore!
Leaving behind what I desperately hope to forget.

The rumours outside, the anger inside, wash your worries away!
Let the music play!
Security is gone, your job is done, life is a takeaway...
Let the music play!

At the edge of the world,
Here close by your side,
Praying for all the people who can't let go.
Let us break all ties,
Just leave it all behind!
Waiting for the people to surrender.

ALL YOUR LIFE

I've grown up, trying to find a clue.
I've been told I'll never find the truth.
A mystery so deep, a secret to keep.

Life... is standing at your gate
Life... is waiting for your fate
Life... is riding on your train
And all your life... you're dancing in the rain
All your life

Young at heart I'm trying to hold on.
Don't look back while time keeps moving on.
Solve the mystery, open sesame!

BLOW AFTER BLOW

There are days when it's too much
When you can't fight back it's going to be tough
Some situations cannot be avoided
Numerous occasions to take a beating

Blow after blow
From time to time
Smash or pass
An eye for an eye

Blow after blow / We won't give up
Blow after blow / We won't give in

Bravely we fought for a long time.
Never looked back to a great happy past
Individual voices in our heads
Encourage us not to give up

FLY IN DREAMS

Deep in the urban jungle, here in the city of light.
We can imagine a world of peace and harmony.

An inner fire, burning deep inside.
Like a desire. Be aware of the flames!

We can only fly in dreams
We can always fly in dreams

Seems to be a lonely place, seems we are on our own.
We will grow together, not to be alone.

Let us run. Or could we be too late?
Time for fun now. You'll never catch me.

Spread your wings, don't be afraid
We're on our night flight, it is never too late.

IN THE NAME OF LOVE

A mirror wall – reflection of movement.
Unexpected calls from the other side of the wall...to move forward.
Move forward...in the name of love...move forward! Move forward!

In the name of love
While others fight to maintain their power
Make a name for yourself. Be gentle!
Rejection is redirection.

Remember, we have sworn when we were young:
Always listen to even the most absurd thoughts!

Proceed with moderation!
Proceed with moderation!
Proceed with moderation!
Proceed with moderation!

FAME

You count the seconds, every minute, at any time.
A hunter of your existence. So restless.

Think twice – you only live once
Decide, what you really want
Delight of your fantasy
I'll count to three – then open your eyes!

Fame...
Somewhere we found our treasure.
Fame...
Sometimes they call it pleasure.
Fame...
Somehow just 15 minutes.
Fame...
So use your time for your own fame!

You count the fails, every problem, at any time.
Driven by suffering. So breathless.

Think twice – you only live once
Decide, what you really want
Delight of your fantasy
I'll count to three – then open your eyes!

We're turning upside down again, close your eyes!

Think twice – you only live once
Decide, what you really want
Delight of your fantasy
One, two, three – now open your eyes!

STRANGER THAN PARADISE

A look in their eyes...
Stranger than paradise
Look at their moves...
Stranger than paradise
Hear their voices...
Stranger than paradise
Listen closely...
Stranger than strange

Do they want a piece of me?
Just say the word and we'll be free.
Run! Please take my advice!
This world is stranger than paradise.

In numerous places...
Stranger than paradise
Motionless faces...
Stranger than strange

It's time to retire soon.
See the hand that threatens doom.
Run! A house full of lies!
This world is stranger than paradise.

Stranger than paradise
Stranger than paradise

GRAVITY

(Instrumental)

ONCE IN A BLUE MOON

Once upon a time we were close together
But we failed, we both failed.

We've always tried to find out what life was all about.
We never had the time to ask each other what we expected.

I long for you once in a blue moon
You're on my mind once in a blue moon

Once upon a time we were fools of our life.
Then we won, we both won.

We were always selfish, both of us, the sky was the limit.
We never had any future plans.

We've always tried to find out what life was all about.
We never had the time to ask each other what we expected.

We were always selfish, both of us, the sky was the limit.
We never had any future plans.

SOMETHING WENT WRONG

It just happened that way. Once again.
Nobody saw it coming. Nobody's to blame.

Something went wrong. Time to act!

A different point of view now: What's up here?
Please no hopeless crying. Nothing to fear.

A glimpse of hope would be good. Courage to decide. I nearly cannot breathe.
Something went wrong. Time to act!
Something went wrong.

What have we done to deserve this? Who decided?
In that theatre we call life we just tried it.

Something went wrong. Time to act!

I'm so sorry to admit I'm not fine
Feel a teardrop on my skin but it ain't mine

Where is your confidence now? Depressing mood. I really cannot think.
Something went wrong. Time to act!
Something went wrong.

A glimpse of hope would be good. Courage to decide. I nearly cannot breathe.
Where is your confidence now? Depressing mood. I really cannot think.
Something went wrong.

INTERMISSION

Your existence, not for all time.
You will probably concede, sometimes it seems so.
Your resistance to the future
Is based on knowledge: You can't complete.
Realise your time on earth is finite!

It's time to treat yourself!
Longing for visions
When you've found yourself -
Intermission!

Your concerns, your beliefs
Ain't to be taken seriously.
You will see or someone else around you:
Struggle as you can. You cannot win.
Realise your time on earth is finite!

It's time to treat yourself!
Longing for visions
When you've found yourself -
Intermission!

It's time to treat yourself!
Intermission!

SENDING OUT

In fact, we're all sisters and brothers. It's plain to see we all need each other.
Radio station can you hear me?

Sending out a bit of hope
Calling out a message of peace
Sending out... - Sending out...

We're all one tribe, we're all the same. All together we're in this game.
Radio station can you hear me?

Radio station can you hear me?
One day you'll see, we all will be free.

INCREDIBLE BRIGHT LIGHT

Hear the sirens - shrill sounds. What is it all about?
Why tonight? Not in the mood, not feeling well.

Incredible bright light, shining in our eyes, we're blind
A mushroom cloud terrifies everyone. So loud. Is this the end now?

Fear of dying tonight, in your arms.
What could happen to us? We never spoke about.

Incredible bright light, shining in our eyes, we're blind
A mushroom cloud terrifies everyone. So loud. Is this the end now?
People running, people crying: What did we do in the end to prevent?
Incredible bright light, shining in our eyes. We've always been totally blind.

FINITY

Emptiness in your heart. Loneliness in your soul.
I wish you lots of strength during this period.

Oh, finity – What a tragedy
Ohh, finity – There's nothing good
Oh, finity – There's no remedy
Finity won't last for good

Question mark over your head. No reason left you could find.
Death leaves a heartache no one can heal.
